

UiT The Arctic University of Norway

FACT SHEET INBOUND STUDENT EXCHANGE SPRING SEMESTER 2024

INSTITUTIONAL INFORMATION

Name of institution:	UiT the Arctic University of Norway
Main campuses:	Tromsø, Alta, Harstad, Narvik
Study places:	Bardufoss, Bodø, Hammerfest, Kirkenes, Mo i Rana, Svalbard
Name of international office:	International Cooperation Section
Erasmus code:	N TROMSO 01
EUC:	1519312
PIC:	999 847 643
OID:	E10208921
Postal address	International Cooperation Section UiT The Arctic University of Norway PO Box 6050 Langnes, NO-9037 Tromsø, Norway
Main email address for mobility:	mobility@uit.no

NOMINATION PROCESS FOR PARTNERS

All exchange/trainee student must be nominated electronically through an established institutional agreement. Without a formal agreement in place, we cannot accept any application for exchange at UiT.
Nomination period (spring semester 2024):	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Nomination web opens: 15th September 2024• Nomination Web closes: 15th October 2024
Access to Nomination Web	First-time users can request access to UiT Nomination Web through our Mobility Enquiry Desk Required information: Nominator's name (outbound mobility) Nominator's email address Name/type of exchange agreement ✉ mobility@uit.no
Link to the Nomination Web:	https://en.uit.no/nominate

UiT The Arctic University of Norway

FACT SHEET INBOUND STUDENT EXCHANGE SPRING SEMESTER 2024

APPLICATION PROCESS FOR STUDENTS

Nominated students will receive an invitation email from UiT to create their applicant profile on UiT's Application Web. Application procedures can be found here: Inbound exchange students: How to register your application UiT
Application period:	Application Web opens: 15th September. Application web closes (submission of required materials): 15th October
Learning Agreement:	We do not accept Online Learning Agreement (OLA) at the moment. Your nominated student must submit a paper-based Learning Agreement in PDF to UiT's Application Web service.
English language requirements:	The nominated student must have a good command of English at B2 or C1 levels according to the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR). Documentation for English language proficiency: we accept a signed certificate, letter or document from your institution indicating that the student has the required level of English language. We also accept Erasmus Online Linguistic Support (OLS) . <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Application start date: by an invitation email from UiT after the nomination.• Application deadline: 30 October 2024, 23:59 Norwegian Time.
Courses for exchange students:	Erasmus+ exchange student can only select courses from their partner Department at UiT with which home institution has an Erasmus+ agreement with. In exceptional circumstances, the ECTS Supervisor at the Department can allow the student to select course modules from other departments if the course modules from other departments fit the student's study plan at home institution. Links to Course Catalogue for inbound exchange students <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Course modules taught in English: https://en.uit.no/education/courses/incomming• Course modules taught in Norwegian: https://uit.no/utdanning/emner/innreisende
Grading system at UiT:	Information about grading and credits can be found here .
Course/ECTS Supervisors at the faculty departments:	If you have questions about courses, their requirements, and schedules, you can contact the department's course supervisors. The list of course supervisors can be found here .

PRACTICAL INFORMATION

Academic calendar (spring semester 2024):	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Tuition starts: 8th January 2024• Tuition end: 14th June 2024 Deadline for semester registration and changes to Learning Agreement: 1 February
Orientation programme:	Debut Week International is planned for January 4-6, 2023. Updated information will be published here .
Student housing:	The Arctic Student Welfare Organisation (Samskipnaden) offers student accommodation. Inbound exchange/traineeship students are advised to apply as soon as they receive their email from UiT about their nomination. More information can be found here .
Insurance:	Inbound exchange students are not insured by UiT The Arctic University of Norway and therefore it is mandatory for the students to have a valid health and accident insurance either by their home institution, or with a private insurance. In addition to having a health and accident insurance, students should also be covered for liability.
Student visa:	The visa requirements depend upon the student's citizenship. The Norwegian Directorate of Immigration (UDI) have information about the rules for student visa/study permit depending on citizenship here .
Cost of living in Norway:	An estimation of a student's cost of living is made and revised yearly by the Norwegian State Educational Loan Fund (Lånekassen) and Norwegian Directorate of Immigration (UDI). Their recommendation is that the student needs NOK 128 887 for the study year 2022-2023 (10 months) or NOK 58 585 for one semester (5 months) to cover your expenses as a student and to obtain a student visa (Study Permit) for students coming from outside the EU/EFTA area. Read more about student budget and cost of living here .

UiT The Arctic University of Norway

FACT SHEET INBOUND STUDENT EXCHANGE SPRING SEMESTER 2024

Student life:	All UiT's campuses are close to nature, and many of our international students enjoy this proximity both for its beauty and for the new activities and experiences it offers, as well as student associations and . Read about: -UiT in Tromsø here . -UiT in Narvik here . -UiT in Alta here . UiT in Harstad here .
Tuition fee:	There are NO tuition fees for international students to study at UiT in Norway. Exchange students are exempt from paying the semester fee.
Students with disability:	Students with a disability and special needs are entitled to adaptations of their daily student life and examinations to ensure equal learning and educational opportunities. There are student accommodations that are adapted for wheelchair users for which you can apply. Read more about studying with disability here .
Acceptance information for admitted students:	We will send all acceptance materials (Acceptance letter and signed Learning Agreement) directly to your student through our Application Web service: https://en.uit.no/education/art?p_document_id=591288